Known Bugs & Issues

One issue that our software has is the 1-2 second delay caused by the hand statistic generation. At this time, this operation is computationally intensive, but it might be possible to further optimize it to improve system performance.